

Contents

From the Series Editors	xi
Acknowledgments	xix
Alex Marshall
Introduction: Into the Abyss: The Arc of Revolution and the “World Crisis”	1
Alex Marshall
Lenin and World Revolution, 1917–24	25
Norman Saul
The Helsingfors (Helsinki) Sailors’ Assembly in 1917	63
Marko Tikka
Finland’s Civil War of 1918	79
Karsten Brüggemann
Learning from Estonia Means Learning to Be Victorious? Estonia between the Legacy of the February Revolution and Nikolai Iudenich’s Northwestern Army	99
Geoffrey Swain
Starting the World Revolution: Latvia’s Soviet Republic of 1919	131

Mark Jones

- Scripting the Revolution: “Russian Conditions” and the German Political Imagination in 1918 and 1919 151

Thomas Weber

- Bavaria’s Seminal Catastrophe: The Revolution of 1918–19 177

Harald Jentsch

- The Hamburg Uprising as Part of the “German October,” 1923 213

Ignác Romsics

- Hungary in 1918–19 247

Matthew R. Schwonek

- Strategy for an Emerging State: Poland and the War with the Bolsheviks, 1919–21 283

Jacek Lubecki

- Poland and the Russian Revolutions of 1917 313

Mark R. Baker

- The Russian Revolution in Ukraine and the Ukrainian Revolution of 1917 341

Vadim Mukhanov

- From the Mountains to the Plains: Establishing Soviet Rule in Armenia and Azerbaijan (1920) 371

Vadim Mukhanov

- The Final Act of the Civil War in the Caucasus:
The Sovietization of Georgia in 1921 397

Georgia Eglezou

- The Asia Minor War (1919–22) 443

Vasil Paraskevov
The Impact of the October Revolution on Bulgarian Politics, 1917–19	461
Steven Sabol
Revolution and Civil War in the Steppe: Alash Orda and the Struggle for Kazakh Independence	477
David M. Crowe
Mongolia: Battleground of Eurasian Imperialism, 1911–24	501
John W. Steinberg
The Forgotten Treaty of Brest-Litovsk: The Bread Treaty and Peacemaking in 1918	529
Steven Sabol
Epilogue	559
Notes on Contributors	567