

Contents

Photographs and Posters	xi
Acknowledgments	xv
William Benton Whisenhunt
Editor's Introduction	xvii

THROUGH THE RUSSIAN REVOLUTION

Introduction	5
--------------------	---

Part I

The Makers of the Revolution: With the Workers, Peasants and Fighters

Chapter 1: The Bolsheviks and the City	13
Chapter 2: Petrograd Demonstrates	21
Chapter 3: A Peasant Interlude	29
Chapter 4: The Man on Horseback	41
Chapter 5: Comrades of the Sea	46

Part II
The Revolution and the Days After:
Among the Whites and the Reds

Chapter 6: “All Power to the Soviets”	55
Chapter 7: November 7—A New Date in History	60
Chapter 8: Looting the Winter Palace	65
Chapter 9: Red Guards, White Guards and Blackguards	75
Chapter 10: Mercy or Death to the Whites?	84
Chapter 11: The War of the Classes	95
Chapter 12: Building the New Order	109

Part III
The Outreach of the Revolution:
Across Siberia on the Express

Chapter 13: The Steppes Rise Up	121
Chapter 14: The Red Convicts of Cherm	128
Chapter 15: The Vladivostok Soviet	134
Chapter 16: The Local Soviet at Work	139

Part IV
The Triumph of the Revolution:
The Soviets against the Capitalist World

Chapter 17: The Allies Crush the Soviet	149
---	-----

Chapter 18: The Red Funeral	156
Chapter 19: Exit	162
Chapter 20: Retrospect	166
Appendix I: The Death of a Red Regiment	173
Appendix II: The Death Train of Siberia	175
Appendix III: The Burial of Yanishev	179
Appendix IV: A Circular for British Soldiers	181
Appendix V: Yesterday and Today, by Gorky	183
Appendix VI: Declaration of the Rights of the Toiling and Exploited Peoples ...	185
Appendix VII: Posters and Placards	189
Index	201