

Contents

Henryk Baran

Roman Jakobson, Gordon Wasson, and the Development of American Slavic Studies 1

Brett Cooke

Metamentality in Преступление и наказание 19

Olga M. Cooke

“I Shall Not Wholly Die”: Literary Memory in Evgenia Ginzburg’s ‘Whirlwind’ Memoirs 37

Sibelan Forrester

From a Double Margin: Anglophone Translation of Women’s Writing from Croatia and Serbia 49

Luba Golburt

On Romantic Lateness: Viktor Tepliakov’s
Thracian Journey with Byron to Schelling 65

Харви Гольдблатт

Судьба кирилло-мефодиевской традиции в Slavia orthodoxa XV
века: О роли и значении «Сказания изъявленного о письменах»
Константина Философа Костенецкого 81

Angelina Ilieva

Identity Narratives Unraveled:
The Bulgarian Film Mission London 103

Jenny Kaminer

- Madonna on the Field of Battle:
Searching for Mary in Isaac Babel's Red Cavalry 121

Ani Kokobobo

- Traumatic Repetition in Vasili Grossman's
"The Hell of Treblinka" and Everything Flows 131

Mark Lipovetsky

- The Contemporary Artist as a Trickster:
The Case of Dmitrii Prigov 147

Tomislav Longinović

- Writing Down the Nation: Race, Nation and Gender in Vuk Stefanović Karadžić's Vision of Modern Serbia 157

Susan McReynolds

- Leo Tolstoy as a Mirror of the Culture Wars:
Anna Karenina and the Humanities in the 21st Century 171

Robert Romanchuk

- The Old Slavic Digenis Akritis:
Its "Formulaic Style" and Problems of Its Edition 187

Lisa Ryoko Wakamiya

- Writer-Collectors:
Mimesis and Transmissibility in Nabokov and Benjamin 213