

Contents

Vladimir V. Noskov

Editor's Introduction	viii
-----------------------------	------

Russia from the American Embassy

Introduction	3
I. First Impressions	7
II. German Influence in Russian Affairs	22
III. Treason in High Places	31
IV. Rumbblings of Revolutions	47
V. The March Revolutions	53
VI. American Recognition of the Provisional Government	72
VII. The Council of Workmen and Soldiers' Deputies	83
VIII. Significant Changes in the Ministry	98
IX. The Diplomatic and Railway Commission	108
X. The July Revolution	113

XI. The Provisional Government and the Forces of Destruction	120
XII. The Break Between Kerensky and Korniloff	129
XIII. The Bolsheviks Overthrow the Government	144
XIV. The Constituent Assembly Dispersed by Armed Bolsheviks	164
XV. The Diamandi Incident	187
XVI. The Brest-Litovsk Peace	193
XVII. Vologda—The Diplomatic Capital	202
XVIII. Archangel and the Northern Government	224
XIX. Allied Policies in Russia	253
XX. Bolshevism and the Peace Conference	260
XXI. Bolshevism in Principle and in Practice	277
XXII. Russia—The Chief Victim of the World War	285
XXIII. Retrospect	288
Index	296