

Contents

List of Illustrations	x
From the Series Editors	xi

Revolution (1917)

Michael Hughes

From the February Revolution to the Treaty of Brest-Litovsk	3
---	---

Norman E. Saul

The United States and Russia in the Turmoil of War and Revolution, 1914–18	37
---	----

Liudmila Sultanovna Gatagova

The Global War in Russian Patriotic Literature, 1914–15	69
---	----

Thomas Bürgisser

Flight to Neutral Territory: Escaped Russian POWs and Deserters in Switzerland	87
---	----

Marina Soroka

Family Networks in a Divided Europe: The Case of the Benckendorff Family	111
---	-----

John W. Steinberg

- The Treaty of Brest-Litovsk:
The Wilsonian Moment before Wilson 135

Civil War (1918–22)

Oleg Budnitskii

- The Diplomacy of the “Second Russia,” 1918–22 167

Alastair Kocho-Williams

- The Persistence of Tsarist Diplomacy after the Russian Revolution 201

Anatol Shmelev

- Foreign Minister Redux: Sergei Dmitrievich Sazonov and White Diplomacy in Paris, 1918–20 221

Dinah Jansen

- Wilsonian Principles and the Defense of Russian
Territory at Versailles, 1919 255

Charlotte Alston

- International Intervention in Russia’s Civil War:
Policies, Experiences, and Justifications 273

Shūsuke Takahara

- Woodrow Wilson’s Intervention in North Russia and Siberia 301

Oleksa Drachewych

- The Bolsheviks’ Revolutionary International: The Idea and
Establishment of the Communist International, 1914–22 317

Daniel C. Waugh

Britain Confronts the Bolsheviks in Central Asia:
Great Game Myths and Local Realities 341

Taline Ter-Minassian

From the Transcaspian to the Caucasus:
Reginald Teague Jones's Secret War (1918–21) 359

Yulia Yurievna Khmelevskaya

"A la Guerre Comme à la Guerre":
America's Battle with Hunger in Soviet Russia (1921–23) 377

Anthony J. Heywood

Russian and Soviet Foreign Trade, 1914–28:
Rethinking the Initial Impact of the Bolshevik Revolution 395

Notes on Contributors 415