

Contents

List of Illustrations	xi
From the Series Editors	xiii
Acknowledgments	xxi
David MacLaren McDonald
Introduction	1
David Schimmelpenninck van der Oye
The Historiography of Russian International Relations during the Great War and Revolution	9
Dominic Lieven
Russia against Napoleon and Wilhelm: Explaining Success and Failure	23

Origins (1900–14)

David MacLaren McDonald
From Tsushima to the July Crisis	47
Marina Soroka
The Russian Foreign Ministry in War and Revolution	83

Irina Sergeevna Rybachenok
Russian Foreign Policy at the Turn of the 20th Century: Goals, Challenges, and Methods	105
Elizabeth Greenhalgh
Managing a “Long-Distance” Coalition War: France and Russia, 1914 to Early 1917	125
Keith Neilson
Anglo-Russian Relations in the First World War	147
Sean Gillen
“ A Great Russia ”: The State of a Free, Disciplined Nation, 1904–14	171
War (1914–16)
David Schimmelpenninck van der Oye
From the Guns of August to Sazonov’s Fall	197
Jennifer Siegel
Foreign Finance and Russia’s War Effort	219
Ronald P. Bobroff
The Question of the Turkish Straits during World War I	241
T. G. Otte
The Waning of the Monarchies: War, Revolution, and Royal Diplomacy	265
Evgenii Iur’evich Sergeev
Russian Military Intelligence in the Coalition War, 1914–18	299

Kirill Andreevich Solov'ev
The State Duma and Russian Foreign Policy in the Great War	317
Alexander Polunov
The Russian Orthodox Church in Years of War: International Activity and Plans for Postwar Reconstruction	333
Aleksandr Vladimirovich Golubev and Ol'ga Sergeevna Porshneva
The Image of the Ally in Russian Public Consciousness in the Context of World War I	353
Tatiana Filippova
Pickelhaube and Fez: The German and the Turk in Russian Satirical Journals during the Great War	375
Alexandre Sumpf
Defining Enemy Atrocities: Krivtsov's Extraordinary Commission	395
Wim Coudenys
High Politics in a Small Country: Belgian-Russian Military Relations in War and Revolution	417
Notes on Contributors	445